

In addition to his career accomplishments, Gene's character enriched the lives of his co-workers. His leadership at the Department inspired his colleagues to emulate his performance and good judgment. I commend Gene for his dedication, and I personally appreciate the support that he has given to me, my staff, and his fellow South Dakotans. Although Gene is retiring from the Department, I am confident that his legacy of leadership and dedication will thrive in the hearts of his colleagues and all South Dakotans who have benefited from his judicious work.

Gene McCue is a selfless man. In addition to his service to the Federal Government, Gene is the chairman of the board of directors for the Sky Ranch For Boys, a safe house for troubled and impoverished boys. As Gene embarks on this new chapter in his life, I congratulate him on a job well done, and wish him all the best.

IN HONOR OF JUDGE WILMONT
SWEENEY

HON. FORTNEY PETE STARK

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 1996

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Judge Wilmont Sweeney who is retiring as presiding judge of the Juvenile Division of the Alameda County Superior Court on June 1, 1996. I would like to take this opportunity to commend Judge Sweeney for his years of dedication and commitment to the welfare of the children of Alameda County, in California's 13th Congressional District.

Judge Sweeney is a long-time resident of the San Francisco Bay Area. He received his undergraduate degree in 1950 from the University of California at Berkeley and his J.D. from Hastings College of the Law in San Francisco. After being admitted to the California Bar in 1955, he began his legal career in private practice with the firm Wilson, Metoyer, Sweeney & Broussard.

In 1974, Judge Sweeney was appointed to the Berkeley-Albany Municipal Court Bench by Governor Reagan and was elected in 1978. In 1979, Judge Sweeney was elected to the Superior Court Bench of Alameda County by Governor Brown, Jr. He was reelected to the Superior Court in 1986 and 1992. Judge Sweeney became presiding judge of the Juvenile Division of the Alameda County Superior Court in 1981.

As presiding judge, Judge Sweeney has been an inspiration to others in the field of juvenile law. He was a founding member of the Juvenile Court Judges of California. In 1992, he was the first recipient of this organization's Juvenile Judge of the Year Award. During Judge Sweeney's tenure, the Alameda County Juvenile Court developed a reputation second to none for its compassion and commitment to justice for children, their families, and the community.

Judge Sweeney has always been an active member of the community. From 1961 to 1974, he served as a member of the Berkeley City Council and from 1967 to 1974, he was the vice mayor of the city of Berkeley. He has also served on a number of committees including the Judicial Council Advisory Committee on Juvenile Court Law, the Juvenile Court

Judges of California Executive Committee, the Child Abuse Policy Board of Alameda County, and the Robert Woods Johnson Foundation Strategic Planning Committee.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask that you and my colleagues join me in recognizing Judge Wilmont Sweeney for his years of dedication to the children of Alameda County and to wish him well in all of his future endeavors. He will be missed.

TRIBUTE TO KAREN CABE GIBSON'S CLASS AT R.B. STALL HIGH SCHOOL, STATE WINNERS OF THE "WE THE PEOPLE . . . THE CITIZEN AND THE CONSTITUTION" COMPETITION

HON. MARSHALL "MARK" SANFORD

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 1996

Mr. SANFORD. Mr. Speaker, high school students from across the Nation have recently visited Washington to compete in the "We the People," program. I am proud to say that South Carolina's winner is R.B. Stall High School from the First district. They were kind enough to drop by my office, and I had the opportunity to personally meet and congratulate the students, teachers, and coaches. At a time when only about one in six citizens between the ages of 18 and 24 even register to vote, it was heartening to meet so many young people who are shining examples of a new generation of leadership for our Nation.

The teacher of this winning class is Karen Cabe Gibson, who is no newcomer to success. She has produced winning classes for South Carolina all but twice since the competition began. As a result of her countless hours of dedication and with the support of fellow teachers Marshall Ward, Grace Perreault, and principal James Hampton, she once again brought out the best of a class of eager and knowledgeable minds. I trust these students will now go on in life to practice all they have learned.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to individually recognize the students from Mrs. Gibson's class: Sheri Aiken, Nahal Badiian, Richard Carawan, Allan Casanova, Dwayne Cid, Timothy Dasinger, Becky Doscher, Treva Floyd, Michael Gale, Nicole Gethers, Jeff Harvey, Kalyne Kay, Kim Kay, Michael Kay, Trent Legare, Andrew May, Carlos Medina, Jonette Mullineaux, John Pizarro, Desmond Rollins, John Sageser, Cherie Tetterton, Danielle Towns, Timothy Whaley, and Sean Womersley.

I would be remiss if I did not thank the South Carolina Bar, the Charleston County School District and the many volunteers who served as judges and timekeepers during the competition and practice. The program could not have been successful without their backing.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. DAN FRISA

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 1996

Mr. FRISA. Mr. Speaker, due to severe weather that backed up air traffic at LaGuardia

Airport, I was unavoidably detained on the runway, and thus unable to vote on repeal of the 4.3-cent increase in transportation motor fuels excise tax.

Had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on House Resolution 436 (rollcall No. 180), "nay" on the motion to recommit H.R. 3415 (rollcall No. 181), "yea" on final passage of H.R. 3415 (rollcall No. 182). On House Concurrent Resolution 167 (rollcall No. 183), recognizing the 10th anniversary of the Chernobyl nuclear disaster, I would have voted "yea."

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. RON PACKARD

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 1996

Mr. PACKARD. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably detained on Thursday, May 16, 1996, and was unable to cast my vote on rollcall vote No. 179, which was the adoption of House Concurrent Resolution 178, the fiscal year 1997 budget resolution. Had I been present I would have voted "yea" on this rollcall. I ask unanimous consent that my statement appear in the RECORD immediately following rollcall vote No. 179.

OUTFOX PHONE FRAUD

HON. CLIFF STEARNS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 1996

Mr. STEARNS. Mr. Speaker, recently we passed groundbreaking legislation that will unshackle companies and inject competition into the telecommunications industry. This competition will bring about more consumer choice, better services, and lower prices. However, in 1996, this dynamic telecommunications industry is expected to suffer from fraud surpassing $3.7 billion.

I would like to commend the Alliance to Outfox Phone Fraud, a group of companies who have come together to educate consumers and businesses about telecommunications fraud. Big businesses are victims of phone fraud too. A recent survey of 90 businesses who were victims of toll fraud found losses ranged from a few thousand dollars to $4 million.

Those who commit fraud don't just steal from a big telecommunications company, they also steal from you and me. We, as consumers, are forced to pay higher prices in order to make up the loss these telecommunications companies incur, when they are defrauded. If we all follow the alliances' commonsense tips, we will do our part to help outfox fraud and bring down consumer prices.
